Higham Gordon

May 18th, 1918

Gordon Higham, Esq.,

Canadian Tank Battalion,

Ottawa, Ont.

Dear Mr. Higham:

I am sorry that you did not get my message asking you to come to see me on May 7th. I did get a telegram from Lord Aberdeen which I was not able to understand. I am sorry but I do not know what there is I can do to help you because commissions are not now being given through our O. T. C. into the Canadian Army. General Watkin has in the past made selection of men who are to be sent overseas to the British Army, but I was given to understand that this procedure would be discontinued. As far as I am aware there are now no appointments to regular commissions except for those who have seen active service. Very possibly when you get to England you may be able to get a transfer to an English regiment, but I should think that would have to be done through English authorities.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
